Social Work License Exam Preparation Course

Michigan State University School of Social Work is offering a 10 hour Social Work Licensure Examination Preparation Course designed for recent graduates and experienced practitioners taking Master's Level Social Work Licensing Examinations in Michigan. The course includes the following:

- Information-packed sessions focused on passing the licensing exam.
- Comprehensive reviews of social work practice, policy, and theory.
- Comprehensive two volume review books with 1,600 practice questions and four full examinations developed by Social Work Exam Services (SWES)
- Comprehensive lecture outlines to reinforce learning.
- Practice examinations to sharpen test-taking skills by increasing speed and accuracy.
- Highly-qualified faculty with extensive experience.

COMPREHENSIVE MATERIALS:

Every registrant receives the two volume home study review manuals developed by SWES. The material includes 1,600 sample multiple choice questions and a bibliography recommended by the Association of Social Work Boards and supplemented by additional references compiled by SWES faculty.

Do you have questions about how to sign up for the exam?

WHAT PEOPLE ARE SAYING ABOUT THE REVIEW COURSE:

"It is a great opportunity to receive all the information needed for the exam...It takes all the guess work out of what you need to prepare." ~ Cindy

"This class gave me the direction and motivation I needed to study for the exam. I didn't really know where to begin without it."
~ Julie

"It was a great opportunity to brush up on theories and concepts. The course even made me aware of theorists and ideas I had not known about. It showed me what to expect on the Social Work exam. I found it very beneficial."
~ Angela

RECOMMENDATIONS:

It is recommended you take the Licensure Examination 6-8 weeks after attending a review course.
